

Investment Services Firm to Open Office in Crewkerne

The financial services company Edward Jones has appointed Lawrie Tawse as the Financial Adviser to open its first branch office in Crewkerne.

"We are very proud to have Lawrie on board as we become part of the Crewkerne community," said Tim Kirley, Principal of Edward Jones UK. "He brings a level of commitment and enthusiasm that is certain to benefit his clients."

Lawrie Tawse said he is looking forward to opening a new office for a firm that has built a reputation on providing a high level of personalised service to individual investors.

"Edward Jones may be large, but it maintains its commitment to individuals," Tawse said. "I have been impressed with the interest the company's headquarters in Canary Wharf, London, has shown in this new office. Crewkerne, and the investors who live here, are very important to the firm, and I'm impressed by that attitude. I am looking forward to settling down here and to becoming an active member of the community."

Edward Jones is the largest financial services firm in the US, in terms of branches, with more than 10,240 offices in the US, Canada and the UK. The firm's UK affiliate is rapidly expanding with 259 offices open for business throughout the country. The firm has built its success by helping individual investors meet their financial goals and by providing a unique level of personalised service. Edward Jones serves individual investors and small businesses exclusively, offering a full range of investments from shares through to life insurance products.
